Mr. Nobuya Suzuki
Deputy Mayor
City of Yokohama

Mr. Nobuya Suzuki was born in 1955, and entered the employment of the City of Yokohama in 1978. Since then, he has been in charge of the projects including housing policy planning of the City and redevelopment of the Yokohama station areas, experiencing urban planning in the midst of close ties with the regional community. Afterwards, he has held the posts of Director-General of Housing and Architecture Bureau before assuming office as Deputy Mayor in April 2012.
